

Rodeo rained out watch for new date

Elk Point Agricultural Society's Second Annual Spring Classic Stampede turned into the second annual mud bog under more than an inch of rain Friday night, forcing last minute cancellation of the two performances. However, rodeo committee spokesperson Josie Veer says the event has been rescheduled for later in the season, and the committee is meeting with the Lakeland Rodeo Association this week to confirm the new date before it can be announced.

The program and sponsors will remain the same for the rescheduled rodeo.

Ms Veer feels that rodeo is really catching on in Elk Point, as shown by the excellent response to both the Chamber of Commerce's Western Decorating Contest and the Elementary School's poster contest. "The whole committee was really impressed with the way the businesses responded," Ms Veer commented on the former. "We'd like to say a big thank you to the businesses and the Chamber for their involvement." Hopefully the rodeo fever will still be simmering on the back burner when the new performance dates arrive. Keep watching for announcement of the rescheduled date.

Dancers celebrate Ukrainian culture

GLORIOUS FINALE - Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club's 14th Annual Spring Concert ended in the flowing kaleidoscope of colors, intricate steps and solos of the 'Hopak,' which recently earned these skilled senior dancers a gold medal in competition in North Battleford.

A colorful celebration of the Ukrainian culture involved two full hours and over twenty dances as the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club presented their 14th Annual Spring Concert to a packed house Saturday evening. Master of Ceremonies was Henry Kozak.

Senior dancers Beverly Hillebrand, Melanie Malachowski, Tommy Bayduza, John Kozak, Leslie Hillebrand, Michelle Hillebrand, Mark Kozak, Raegan Croteau, James Babenek, Kathy Kozina and Charissa Brown performed the traditional welcoming ceremony of offering bread and salt in the Pryveet March, dressed in the costumes of various regions of the Ukraine.

The Junior Mixed Group, Jasmine Brown, Kristy Myshaniuk, Maureen Myshaniuk, Danielle Schnurer, Kevin Moneta, Matthew Jaremo, Eva Gusnowski, Charlene Brown, Brandi Grekul and Ashley Bochon, gathered to exemplify the glorious rejuvenation that comes with the spring in the Kozachok, which won the group a silver medal in North Battleford.

Kenna Hillebrand performed the difficult poltavski steps in the graceful Vesna solo.

A contemporary Bukovainian Dance with a lively combination of steps was presented by nine of the senior dancers, with the young ladies wearing the strikingly handsome wheat headdresses.

A fast paced Poltava was performed by Sarah Klauke, Amanda Sanregret, Vania Sanregret, Claudia Naber, Tessa Sakowsky, Chantelle Maas, Mary Kozak, Kenna Hillebrand and Taralee Babenek.

Boys will be boys, it seemed in the Zabawka, as Travis Lindquist and Nicholas Myshaniuk laid down their rakes for a nap in the hayfield. The girls - Erin Donaldson Bielech, Dayna Yaremkevich, Amanda Zapesocki, Kristy Lindquist, Karly Shankowski, Taryn Shankowski, Tiffany Lovell, Michelle Zapesocki and Jan-Marie Kozicky - were waiting for just such an opportunity, and made off with the rakes and hats while the boys were asleep, in this charming dance.

A lighthearted dance after a busy day in the fields was exemplified by senior girls Beverly Hillebrand, Melanie Malachowski, Michelle Hillebrand, Raegan Croteau, Kathy Kozina, Charissa Brown and Tessa Sakowsky, dressed in long white dresses and carrying scythes in the graceful Harvest Dance.

What's Happening At COMMUNITY SERVICES

Spike (Amanda Stepto from the Degrassi High television series) will be in Elk Point on Wednesday, May 12, talking about sexuality with teens and parents.

This presentation will offer teens the opportunity to talk about it - to seek answers, to share feelings and concerns to open the lines of communication with their parents. Being able to communicate within the family about these concerns will hopefully promote mutual trust and understanding, and subsequently, thoughtful decision making.

What's on your mind? Relationships... communication... abstinence... pregnancy... making choices... values? Be at F.G. Miller High at 12:15 p.m. and let's just talk about it.

The presentation will be followed by a panel discussion / debriefing from local agency representatives. Free pamphlets will be available for distribution and free posters autographed by Amanda will be available.

For more information, contact the County of St. Paul FCSS (645-1950), F.G. Miller High School (724-3966) or Community Services (724-3800).

HELP! COMMUNITY CALENDAR IN JEOPARDY!

Help! We need sponsorship to run the Community Calendar. Unfortunately there is no money left and if there is no sponsorship, there will be no Calendars in the months to come. One of the goals of the Community Calendar was to get it published for a minimum of one year. After a full year, enough information would be gathered to get a picture of all of Elk Point's annual events. This information could be used as a reference to plan your group or business event without duplicating activities. Does anyone have any ideas on how to save this project? Call 724-3800 with your ideas or if you can help out with this community project.

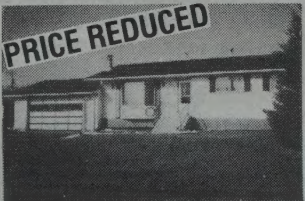

OILMEN DONATE TO CURLING CLUB - Ian Huffman of the Elk Point Oilmen's Association presented Curling Club President Lyle Yerima with a generous contribution toward equipment repairs at the Curling Rink.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that environmental factors govern the distance a fly ball (in baseball) will travel? The higher the altitude of the stadium, the thinner the air is and the farther the ball will travel. A 10 mph wind makes a difference of about 30 feet. The warmer the temperature, the further the ball will travel. Humidity makes little difference. Balls absorb moisture, becoming heavier and travelling shorter distances. But the ball carries farther through moist air, making the two factors cancel each other.

TIDBITS

No one is born with skill to do anything. People may have special aptitudes - some things may come to them relatively easily - but they must practice them if they are to excel. This is true in all callings, whether you're a top executive, a golfer or a pianist. The most skillful are those who practice the most.

If you think you don't know a woman who is a victim of violence

...Look again!

The woman down the street, your co-worker, your best friend—anyone can be a victim of violence.

As neighbours and friends, we all have a role to play in ending the abuse of women. For the safety of our homes and communities, let's put an end to violence against women.

Violence against women hurts us all.

Our Past

By Steve Andrishak

Two equally prominent pioneer doctors who practiced medicine in Elk Point for many years were Dr. Alexander Grant Ross and Dr. Frederick Gustave Miller. Dr. F.G. Miller spent his early years in the Owen Sound district of Ontario, later venturing westward where he took out a homestead in the Vermilion district shortly after the turn of the century. Later, he disposed of his homestead and returned to Ontario where he enrolled in medicine.

Dr. A.G. Ross was born in the Woodstock area of New Brunswick and he too enrolled in medicine (McGill University) prior to World War I.

Apparently these two pioneer doctors first met overseas while serving in Canada's armed forces during World War I. After they became well acquainted they decided that once the war ended and they completed their medical training they would set up a medical partnership somewhere in Canada. This partnership became a reality when Dr. A.G. Ross arrived in Elk Point in 1922. Prior to this (1920), Dr. F.G. Miller had arrived in our hamlet and had started practicing out of his residence. At that time, there was no hospital in Elk Point. In 1923, Dr. Miller and Dr. Ross opened Elk Point's first hospital on the lot east of our present day United Church.

This downtown hospital was in operation from 1923 to 1928. In 1928 a new hospital opened its doors in the west part of Elk Point. This new hospital was classed as a municipal hospital and served a wide area. The old downtown hospital was then renovated and used as a medical clinic. A small sign resting in the front window read: Drs. F.G. Miller and A.G. Ross - Physician and Surgeon. Later, during the 1940s, they built a much larger and more modern clinic on the lot where Dave's Pizza now stands.

Dr. Miller and Dr. Ross alone served the new Municip-pal Hospital from 1928 to about the middle 1940s. They were both very well known and attracted patients from miles around. During this period, Dr. F.G. Miller answered hundreds of country calls - some as far away as the Frog Lake Indian Reserve. He made these calls in a cutter drawn by two fast horses during the winter, and by car during the three remaining seasons. Dr. A.G. Ross usually stayed behind in case he was needed while Dr. Miller was away.

When World War II broke out in 1939, Dr. Ross again joined the Canadian army and for most of the war years, he was attached to the Debert Military Hospital (Nova Scotia). After the war ended in 1945 he was discharged and for a short while, he practiced medicine in the Vegreville hospital. In 1947 he returned to Elk Point and commenced where he left off prior to the outbreak of war.

Dr. A.G. Ross married Ivy

Evans during the 1920s and they raised a family of five children: Jean, Jamie, Donald, Barbara and Ian. Later, they adopted a boy which they named Tommy Joe. Dr. F.G. Miller married Cora Emerson of the Vermilion district prior to his coming to Elk Point. They raised a family of four: George, Ann, Jim (K.C.) and Richard.

Dr. F.G. Miller and Dr. A.G. Ross were both community minded citizens. Dr. Ross served on the village council for a number of years and was instrumental in establishing the Elk Point Gas Co. during the late 1940s. He also worked hard to bring a water and sewer system to our village. Dr. F.G. Miller was active in Elk Point's educational field and served as a board member for many years. He also helped organize Elk Point's first curling rink in 1940 and also provided Elk Point with its golf course - one that is still in operation. Being very sports minded, he backed many early hockey teams within our community.

It is interesting to note that at one time, the clinic fees were only one dollar, later increasing to two dollars a visit. During the depression years, many of the clinic bills went unpaid while others were paid off by providing the doctors with meat, milk, eggs, vegetable and cream products.

The partnership formed by these two doctors lasted for 45 years. It ended with Dr. A.G. Ross' death in 1968. Dr. F.G. Miller passed away in 1972.

Pages could be written about these two early pioneer doctors who contributed so much to the Elk Point district. To honor these pioneer doctors, Elk Point named the agricultural complex the "A.G. Ross Agriplex" and the high school the "F.G. Miller High School." These two doctors were both very worthy of the honor bestowed upon them.

PLAYSCHOOL VISITS FIREHALL - Jack and Jill Playschool visited Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department last week, and enjoyed taking turns holding the powerful fire hose and climbing up to take a closer look at the big yellow fire truck.

From the Forts

Louise Crane

Supervisor of Visitor Services

Budget time has appeared in Alberta and the following is a result.

Starting May 15, we now charge admission to the Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre: Adults - $2, Children - $1, Under 6 - free, Family - $5. Friends of the Forts membership ($10 single $25 family) will give you free admission for a full year as well as quarterly newsletters and more. Call Peggy Zaraska at 724-2160 for your membership.

The admission charges were put in place mainly to supplement the cuts in government funding. With these admissions, we will be offering increased programming to make every visit a new and exciting experience.

May 15 is our opening day for the season, and we will have a special guest storyteller, Eric Neistrom from Rocky Mountain House Historic Site, on hand as well as storytellers from various other aboriginal communities. Music by the Frank Stockall Band, a dance teacher from Fishing Lake, games, a display of education programs and special events at other historic sites and a display of cultural education in the future will round out the day.

June 15 to July 15: Tribute to Archaeologists, with a simulated dig and information on what is needed to choose archaeology as a career.

July 16 to August 3: Gathering of the Clans will feature games, movies and folklore from French Canada, Orkney Islands, Scotland and the Aboriginal People.

August 4 to 31: Okiiskwekan (Cree for 'these women') is a tribute to the many crafts and skills of the Native women. Displays of Native and Metis women who have made a place for themselves in Canadian history, craft and Native herbal workshops will be part of the program.

Kids' Break: Every Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The charge of $12.50 per day includes lunch, crafts, games and a lot of fun.

More to see and do in '93

This program also provides two part time jobs.

I have managed to put these programs together on a very limited budget that is enhanced by the contributions made by the admissions. Last year we had 7500 visitors, but the donations box yielded only $2500 or about 33 cents per visitor. It costs many times that amount to operate interesting and effective programs, hence it was necessary to put an admission fee in effect, such as other historic sites around the province have.

I hope the charge will not discourage anyone from visiting us. Elk Point and district can be proud of the quality of heritage interpretive programs that are available at Fort George - Buckingham House. Over the last few months, I have had the opportunity to spread the word about the wonderful places Elk Point and the County of St. Paul are to visit and live in.

If you have any further questions, please call 724-2611.

LPN DAY PROCLAIMED - Mayor Ed Buck has proclaimed May 14 as Licenced Practical Nurse Day in Elk Point. The proclamation notes that LPNs provide direct, personalized nursing care in to-days high tech health care system, are committed to excellence in patient care, in partnership with other members of the health care team, have been valued members of the nursing care team since 1947, and are preparing for change by continually enhancing their knowledge and skills. Present for the signing of the proclamation were (back row, left to right) Deanna Fakeley, Jerome Keichinger, Sandra Oester, Lise A. Bussiere, (front, left to right) Carolyn Onusko, Mayor Buck and Debbie Hahn.

Town committed to N. E. marketplace

The Town of Elk Point has agreed to join communities throughout the region in the new Northeast Alberta Market Place program. Planning for the program has now been completed, and the program kicks off July 1.

Each participating community will have one voting representative, with Vern King, who was part of the initial steering committee, as Elk Point's representative.

The area covered by the Market Place is divided into five zones. Elk Point is in Zone 1 with Smoky Lake and St. Paul, while Zone 2 includes Cold Lake, Grand Centre and Bonnyville, Zone 3 takes in the Two Hills, Vegreville and Viking areas, Zone 4 is Lloydminster, and Zone 5 includes Wainwright, Killam and Provost. Jean Champagne of St. Paul - Smoky Lake Community Futures is the Zone 1 Representative.

GOODBYE AND THANKS - Chamber Vice President Victor Stepa (right) presented departing Treasury Branch manager Mark Wilson with a plaque honoring his efforts for numerous Elk Point Groups, including the Chamber.

Contest. Each of the eleven businesses which participated was given between one and ten points for each of the following criteria: the extent to which the decor promoted the rodeo, appearance from the outside, appearance from the inside, unique use of theme, effort required, and staff participation.

Runner up was Dave's Pizza, with their hilarious cartoon cowpeople window decor, while the Town of Elk Point, with 3-dimensional wild west characters, and the Elk Point Review, with cartoons and rodeo photos, received honorable mentions.

The trophy will be presented at the next meeting of Chamber. Thanks to Millie's Flowers, Wolanuks, Town of Elk Point, Dave's Pizza, the Toronto Dominion Bank, Treasury Branch, Woody's, Bumper to Bumper, Stedmans, Sew and Knit and the Review for taking part.

Chamber welcomes new bank manager

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce honored one departing member and welcomed a new member at their May 5 meeting. Mark Wilson, former Treasurer of the Chamber and a tireless and willing worker for many groups in the community, is moving to Bow Island, and will be much missed in Elk Point. His former position as manager of the Alberta Treasury Branch has been taken over by Mel Ryks, formerly of Leduc.

The Chamber was pleased with the response to their Rodeo Week Decorating Contest, and chose Billie Milholland and Vern King to assist President Louise Crane with the judging.

The Chamber agreed to participate in the Canada Day celebration by hosting their usual Pancake Breakfast.

The Chamber's Economic Development Committee has held their first meeting, and is planning to obtain a neutral moderator for their upcoming brainstorming session. Max Edgar of NADC is willing to facilitate the session and will attend the Committee's next meeting to discuss the matter further.

President Crane has had a letter from the NADC regarding their recent public meeting, and reported that they were well pleased with the hospitality they received in Elk Point.

Correspondence was recieved from the Alberta Tourism Education Council regarding the various tourism education programs that are available.

President Crane reported that Leona Bretzer of Home Town Grocers and Kelly Cummings from Hillside Service recently attended the Alberta Best course in Vegreville. She feels this would be a valuable course for any retail employee to take, and hopes to get a course going in Elk Point sometime in June. Vern King and Jean Champagne agreed to help Ms Crane get planning for an Alberta Best session underway, with the Chamber hosting the event. Mayor Ed Buck was in attendance at the Chamber meeting, and said the Town would be fully supportive of the Chamber undertaking this endeavor.

Billie Milholland reported she has attended two travel shows in Edmonton and one in Calgary and gave out considerable information on Elk Point. Next year, the Lakeland Tourist Association, whom she represented at these shows, will be going to travel shows in Calgary, Edmonton, Red Deer, Saskatoon and possibly Meadow Lake as they target a regional market. She noted the Elk Point brochures went very well, and that it is very important to have an attractive brochure of this type.

Ed Buck reported on the status of the Golf Course upgrading, and said all funding is now in place. Work will begin as soon as the Community Facility Enhancement Grant funding is received. Thanks to community donations, grants and the club's own funding, Buck said they are now at the break-even point to go ahead with the development, which will be beneficial to local sportspersons and tourists alike when it is completed.

DOUBLE DECKER DANCERS - The boys exhibit energy and enthusiasm in the Kolomaka which was part of 'The Pioneers.'

Ukrainian dancers perform

Gathering flowers to create colorful wreaths was exhibited in the Wreath Dance, by Rayna Sanregret, Jamy Croteau, Nicole Sommerville, Monica Naber, April Gusnowski and Tara Campbell.

The adult dancers then took to the stage in the Kvitochko, a celebration of spring by Lillian Ewasiuk, Joan Palamarek, Diane Mudryk, Donna Yaremkevich, Terrie Donaldson, Elaine Babenek, Diane Wolanuk, Elizabeth Kozak and Maryann Kozicky.

A charming duet from the Volyn region, the Volynanochka, was performed by Michelle Hillebrand and Raegan Croteau, who won a silver medal in North Battleford with the same dance.

Senior dancer Melanie Malachowski encouraged the youngest members of the club, Helen Ramful, Chelsea Schnurer, Sarah Mahon, Jessica Lee, Nicholas Zapesocki and Adam Zapesocki, to dance in the Malanky Dytiachyi.

The energetic Tropak, ending in a flourish of fluttering ribbons, completed the first half of the concert. Dancers were Sarah Klauke, Amanda Sanregret, Vania Sanregret, Robert Lychak, Aaron Jaremko, Claudia Naber, Justin Malachowski, Tessa Sakowsky, Chantelle Maas, Mary Kozak, Kenna Hillebrand, Travis Brown, Taralee Babenek and Curtis Croteau.

A huge group of dancers started off the second half with a dance celebrating The Pioneers, in which a young maiden eagerly greeted her kozak after his long journey, and the entire community welcomed him home with a pioneer style barn dance, complete with hay bales and circulating refreshment jug. Even Baba and Gido get into the swing of the final dance, the Kolomaka.

A change of pace saw the beginners group portray the free spirits of the winds of the Ukraine in the lovely Chermishina.

A fantasy touch for the concert was the Lyalky, as a graceful fairy (Monica Naber) brought five dancing dolls (Rayna Sanregret, Jamy Croteau, Nicole Sommerville, April Gusnowski and Tara Campbell) to life.

A contemporary folk dance from the Bukovian region, the Budnarsky, was performed by adult dancers Elizabeth Kozak, Donna Yaremkevich, Joan Palamarek, Maryann Kozicky, Lillian Ewasiuk and Terrie Donaldson. Diane Mudryk, a seventh member of the group, sprained her foot at the conclusion of her previous dance and was unable to take part.

The Volyn Dance was performed by the senior group, with expression and enthusiasm.

Curiosity may have killed the cat, but it brought the trio, Taralee Babenek, Claudia Naber and Mary Kozak, a smelly situation as they looked into a sack and found a huge wreath of garlic in the Chisnik.

The Junior Mixed group performed steps from the Transcarpathian region in the Tanetos, which featured colorful new costumes in white, blue and red.

The ornate vests and handmade slippers of the Carpathian mountains set the scene for the energetic Hutzulka, performed by the Intermediate group.

To complete the concert, there was of course the traditional Hopak, with the jewel-colored velvet vests and rippling ribbon headdresses of the girls and the scarlet satin pants of the boys blending into a kaleidoscope of colors as the Senior dancers performed their gold medal rendition of the famous dance.

The evening ended with the presentation of certificates to the newest members of the dance club, and plaques to those who have been in the club longer. Gifts were presented to two members who are graduating from high school this year, Melanie Malachowski and Beverly Hillebrand. Miss Malachowski also joined instructor Debbie Kachmar in receiving gifts from their students.

Door prizes were won by Amanda Leaf, Katherine Shymkiw, Dustin Yaremkevich, Diane Hawryluk, Phyllis Young, Arthur Brodwin and Ida Capjack.

YOUR FUTURE MAY BE IN NORTHERN ALBERTA

Thank You

Ron and Sue Herald and Family would like to express a sincere thanks to all those who took the time to help fight the fire that broke out near their home by Stoney Lake. It was greatly appreciated as without the hard work and quick action of all involved it would have done much more damage than it did. Thank you all very much.

Tennis news

Danny Maas
Tennis Coach

It's time to pick up that racquet and hit the courts once again! I'm very fortunate to be back in Elk Point for the summer and it looks like this year will be our best yet!

Every week, this column will be filled with pertinent information regarding upcoming events and lessons, as well as helpful tennis tips to improve your game, so be sure not to miss one issue of the Elk Point Review!

Tennis practices are beginning immediately, and here is the schedule for the month of May:

Ages 9 - 12: Mondays and Thursdays, 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Ages 13 - 15: Mondays and Thursdays, 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Ages 16 - 18: Mondays and Thursdays, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Adults: Mondays and Thursdays, 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

For the student lessons, all newcomers are welcome. Remember, your registration fee of $15 includes free use of rackets and tennis balls, tennis lessons and practices for the entire season. What a deal!

For all adults in learning to play tennis for the first time, or for those who feel they've forgotten all they learned last season, I'm holding an Adult Beginners' Tennis Clinic on Saturday, May 29 from 1 to 5 p.m. A fee of $25 payable on May 29 entitles you to a club membership, free use of tennis equipment, and free lessons and practices for the rest of the summer. If, at the end of your adult tennis clinic on May 29, you feel that you have not learned anything new, or if you simply do not enjoy tennis as much as you thought you did, I will give you your money back. You have nothing to lose! Absolutely no previous tennis experience is required to attend this clinic! To register for the clinic, or for any tennis concerns, please call the Tennis Hotline: 724-2864. If I'm not home, please leave a message and I will return your call.

Tennis Tip:

This early in the tennis season, it is very important to stretch completely both before and after playing. This reduces the risk of injury and stiffness. Also, with our ozone depleting, never play tennis without a hat and sunscreen nearby.

Fastball, Softball, Slowpitch Rules and Umpires' Clinic

COME OUT AND DANCE - Melanie Malachowski encouraged the tiniest members of the Dance Club to try out their steps with her.

Seatbelt enforcement campaign

Cst. A. G. Stockley
Elk Point RCMP Detachment

RCMP Detachments across Alberta will be coordinating a province wide Seatbelt Enforcement Campaign. Between May 10 and May 14, motorists are reminded to buckle up.

Seatbelt legislation compliance will be a high priority during this period on all Alberta highways. Please remember: Seat belts save lives, it may be yours or a loved one, so please buckle up.

Have a pleasant summer!

Two strive for excellence

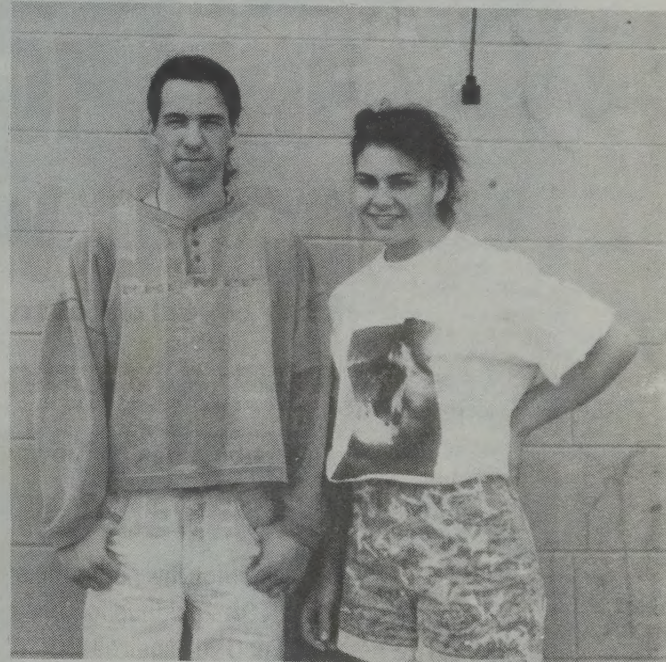

Two Grade 11 students at F.G. Miller High School have been chosen to attend the Alberta Youth Olympic Symposium in Calgary, May 14 to 16. Candace Ference and Danny Hanson will join 39 other Grade 11 students from across the province at the conference, which has as its theme, "Striving For Excellence," whether it be in sports, the arts or community leadership.

All of the students chosen for the conference show exemplary leadership skills in their schools and communities. The weekend will bring them together for two days of discussion and learning focused on the Olympic Movement: fostering knowledge and appreciation of the Movement, increasing awareness of the Olympic sports interest of other young Albertans, and discussing sport issues and Olympic problems. The conference will be held at the Athlete Training Centre, Canada Olympic Park.

The weekend event is supported by the Canadian Olympic Association and the Alberta Sport Council, as well as Syncrude Canada Ltd.,

Mobil Oil and Nova Corporation. Greyhound Lines of Canada is providing transportation for the students.

OFF TO CALGARY - Danny Hanson and Candace Ference are attending the Alberta Youth Olympic Symposium this weekend.

How to be a millionaire

Students at F.G. Miller High School had an opportunity to learn how to get rich last week. Bill Finley-Punnett, the national program consultant of the "I Want To Be A Millionaire" Program and Jean Champagne of St. Paul - Smoky Lake Community Futures visited the school and made a presentation to a small group of students who had expressed an interest in learning more about the program.

The Millionaire program provides training sessions and $100 seed money to students aged 12 to 17 with which to start a business of their own during the summer. The slide presentation which was part of the session showed youngsters raising turkeys, mowing lawns, making ornaments, taking care of seniors, digging clams for shore lunches, and raising giant pumpkins, among the ideas built upon by the young entrepreneurs.

Workshops in the program teach record keeping, marketing and public speaking. The students also have ongoing one-on-one consulting available. The products and services resulting from the program are showcased in a community celebration at the end of the program.

The object of the program is not to make money, but to build confidence, to educate in the ways of business, and to find out if these people want to be business owners in their adult lives.

Ever tried to sell a farmer insurance he didn't need?

Don't waste your time. A farmer can smell a bad deal a mile away.

That's why we got started back in 1896. A bunch of Manitoba farmers couldn't get the sort of insurance they needed. So they got together in a little prairie town and decided to insure each other. The town was called Wawanesa.

We've grown a lot since then. In fact we're one of the largest Canadian companies in our field. But Wawanesa still means good, honest, down-to-earth insurance. And mutual still means co-operation between people; between us and our brokers, between our brokers and our policyholders.

Old-fashioned? Maybe. Successful? You can bet on it! Those old prairie farmers knew what they were doing.

Our roots are small town
but our branches cover Canada.

WHAT'S NEWS AT THE LIBRARY?

Saranchuk wins top recognition

Walter Saranchuk, a long-time member of the Elk Point and District Lions Club, was honored last week with the Lions International Foundation's greatest recognition in the form of a Melvin Jones Fellowship Award. This award is presented to individuals who show outstanding humanitarian service, generosity and compassion.

Lions District 37-F Governor, Malcolm Flexhaugh, presented the award to Saranchuk, who has been a member of the Lions Club for 22 years, and has been the Club's treasurer for 18 of those years.

Melvin Jones was the founder of Lion Clubs International, which was established in 1917 in the United States, and is now spread across the world.

The award was presented at a joint meeting of Lions and Lionesses, which had as special guests Multiple District 37-F Region 4 Chairman Lion Margaret Young, who is also a member of the Northern Lights Lions Club, and Multiple District 37-F Leadership Development Chairman and District Trainer Lion Don Young, also a member of the Grand Centre Lions Club. Jim Taylor, Treasurer of the Grand Centre Lions Club and Lions members from Ardmore were also on hand for the evening.

Part of the evening included induction of two new members in the Elk Point and District Lions Club, Bruce were also made during the evening.

Librarians meet in Jasper

Librarian Doreen Mayner, Board Chairperson Daphne Schnurer, F.G. Miller High School Librarian Denise Amyotte and Elementary School Librarian Myrna Fedorus were among well over 800 library staff and board members who attended the Alberta Library Conference in Jasper the weekend of April 30 to May 2. Betty Callbeck, Heather West and Jocelyn Fish from the Northern Lights Library System also attended. The speakers were wonderful and the varied hands-on workshops were so useful to all of us. We brought home added enthusiasm for libraries and their services.

The question of the week is, "What is the name of Alberta's floral emblem, and how was it chosen?"

New Books

For the first time, the original uncut science fiction novel, Stranger In A Strange Land by Robert A. Heinlein, is in the library. This is the epic saga of an earthling, born and educated on Mars, who arrives on our planet with superhuman powers and a total ignorance of man.

A Russian countess and an English cavalier set each other aflame and shake a royal court to its foundations in Forever In Your Embrace by Kathleen Woodiwiss.

In a new feat of hypnotic storytelling, Anne Rice continues the extraordinary Vampire Chronicles in her book, Tale Of The Body Thief.

For our juvenile readers we have a well illustrated book that starts from the epic journeys into the unknown by the first people who crossed the Bering land bridge thousands of years ago and continues to Roberta Bondar's landmark journey into space. The Story of Canada, by well known author Janet Lunn, is as vast in scope as the country itself.

Fair Board planning bench show

Elk Point and District Agricultural Society Fair Board met April 29 to start planning for their annual event. Fair dates have been changed to August 6 and 7, to allow the bench show to be held in conjunction with the first ever livestock show. Once again, the bench show will be held in the Seniors' Recreation Centre.

Changes to the Fair Booklet were discussed, and prize donors will be contacted shortly. Fair Booklets will be available soon, watch for further updates.

Convenors were asked to bring ideas for displays or demonstrations that could be presented in conjunction with the Fair to the next meeting.

Come and take out the book Magical Fun published by the Owl and Chickadee magazines. Here you can learn card magic, vanishing tricks, mystery potions, puzzles, treats and much more.

Three new videos are available for kids in the Disney's Adventures in Wonderland series: The Missing Ring Mystery, Helping Hands and Hare Raising Music. These newly released videos bring home fulfilled musical adventure into words and wonder.

Two new country and western music cassettes can be found in our music collection: Wynnona by Wynnona Judd and I Still Believe In You by Vince Gill. We also have Albertan k.d. lang's Ingenu cassette. Be among the first to enjoy these new releases.

Karate tournament

St. Paul Karate-Do hosted a tournament of traditional Japanese karate-Do on May at the St. Paul Elementary School. Competitors and officials came from Lloydminster, Sherwood Park, Vegreville, and Vermilion as well as the local St. Paul and Elk Point clubs.

In the Peewee Kata division, third place went to Rhonda Poliakiwski of the Vermilion club, second place to Alex Fuyarchuk of St. Paul and first place to Michelle Leckie of Elk Point. In the Junior Kata Division, third went to Kristopher Skinner and Dean Welsh, both of the Vegreville club, second place to Tim Havener of Elk Point and first place to Adam Black of Vermilion.

At the adult beginner level, third went to Laurier Gratton and Lance Peters, second to Luc Godin and first to Jerome Spoeth, all of St. Paul. The adult intermediate level had third place going to Claudette Fuyarchuk, second to Rolland Gratton and first to Owen Dixon, all of St. Paul.

In Kumite, or sparring, at the Peewee division, Alex Fuyarchuk took fourth, Severin Wolz - third, Michelle Leckie - second and Rhonda Poliakiwski - first.

Youth Kumite had Greg Beever - fourth, Dean Welsh - third, both from Vegreville, Adam Black of Vermilion - second and Jerome Spoeth of St. Paul - first.

In the adult Kumite division all competitors were from St. Paul. Luc Godin - fourth, Laurier Gratton - third, Owen Dixon - second and Rolland Gratton - first.

Tournament coordinator was Calvin Leckie, instructor of St. Paul Karate-Do. Officiating was done by Steve Hartnett, instructor of Sherwood Park Karate-Do, Stewart Reinier of Lloydminster Karate-Do and Debbie Leckie of St. Paul Karate-Do.

Awards were given to St. Paul and Elk Point Karate students for achievement over the last year. These students were chosen not just for their skills but also for their leadership and the example they set for other students. In Elk Point the award went to Tim Havener. The St. Paul adult award went to Roger Gratton and the junior award to Jerome Spoeth.

St. Paul Karate-Do and other participating clubs at this tournament are members of the Japan Karate Federation of Canada under head instructor Cameron Stueart of Lloydminster and also members of the Japan Karate Federation International under head instructor Fumio Demura of Santa Ana, California.

Red Cross campaign wrapped up

Margaret White

Campaign Coordinator

Thank you for a very successful campaign. We collected $10,639.75 in donations for the Red Cross Society's Alberta / NorthWest Territories Division. This is $759.54 more than this year. On behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society, I would like to thank all the donors for their contributions big and small because without you, there would be no campaign. I would also like to thank all 60 volunteer canvassers for a job well done.

Landonville collected $1,141.00. Heinsburg and area collected $2,043 while Lindbergh and area collected $1,105. A total of $3,344.50 was collected by Elk Point Rural canvassers, and $3,006.25 was collected in Elk Point Town.

Last week was Volunteer Week and in light of that, I would like to inform you that we had 444 total volunteer hours for the 1993 spring campaign.

Once again, thank you everyone for a successful campaign!

Hospital Board update

In response to general public inquiries about certain hospital activities, Elk Point Municipal Hospital takes great pleasure in having the opportunity to provide the community with information on recent events in both a current and factual manner.

Construction of the new 30-bed Long Term Care addition began on April 1, 1993 and is progressing ahead of schedule. As of April 30, sixty percent of the support pilings were in place. Project completion is anticipated in approximately one year.

The Health Facilities Review Committee paid the hospital a two day visit on April 20 and 21. This committee is appointed by the Premier and has the mandate to visit all hospitals, Long Term Care facilities and lodges. The committee routinely visits these facilities approximately every two years, primarily to review the quality of patient care. Their last visit to Elk Point in 1991 received excellent reviews. The verbal review of this recent visit was also of very high standard, giving quality comments to the Board, Administration and general staff.

March 31 ended the hospital's 1992 - 93 fiscal year. The Board is pleased to inform the community that the 1992 - 93 budget projections were met, thanks to the efforts and support of the Board, Administration and all staff.

The foregoing was submitted by the Elk Point Hospital Board.

CANADA HEALTH DAY - In addition to a tea, bazaar and bake sale, Canada Health Day at Elk Point Municipal Hospital included a number of interesting displays, including pharmacist Roberta Stasyk's Dead Drug Roundup (left), dentist Debra MacLellan's interesting display on denture making (top right), activity aide Carolyn Onusko's antique dolls and Theresa Wade's art and crafts display and videos from Frog Lake First Nations. Displays from the North East Alberta Health Unit, Heart Association and Arthritis Society, a model of the hospital addition and a blood pressure clinic were also of interest.

LPN Day is May 14

May 14, 1993 has been chosen by Licenced Practical Nurses as the day they will celebrate their chosen area of nursing and their contributions to health care in Alberta.

LPNs have been providing care in Alberta since 1947. They have a solid basic education and opportunities for continuing education to enhance their knowledge and skills.

Daily, we hear of the need for health reform. LPNs agree that reform is necessary, but that any reform undertaken must maintain the principals of the Canada Health Act.

The 1970s and 80s were years of struggle for LPNs. They felt their roles decreased and their jobs eroded, and say this was often due to professional bias and incorrect interpretation of the 'entry to practice' issue.

We know the face of health care is changing. This is viewed by the LPNs as opportunities for them to expand their role. LPNs support the move to more community based services and are preparing for a role in community care.

Today, with increased educational opportunities and legislative changes, LPNs are facing a brighter future. In cooperation with government, employers and other health team members, LPNs can be a part of the solution for our health care system.

They are proud to be LPNs and look forward to a continued role providing care to Albertans.

Elk Point Municipal Hospital is served by the following LPNs: Corrie Beazley, Shirley Lefebvre, Sandra Oester, Linda Dorey, Polly Fontaine, Ruth Labossiere, Loretta Paquette, Lise Bussiere, Joanne Erickson, Charlene Bintz, Jerome Keichinger, Lucy Robinson, Deanna Fakeley, Jackie Whiffen-Peters, Debbie Berlinguette, Colleen Schade, Debbie Hahn, Theresa McNamara, Joanne Landry-Fontaine, Gail Krysta, Roseanne Dutchak, Jean McGinnis, Carolyn Onusko and Elaine Zayonce, and by Nursing Attendants Frances Moneta, Peggy Maas, Anne Uchman and Leona Moneta.
